

AM and FM broadcast radio have become a vast wasteland of mostly commercials for products I don't care about not to mention the constant chatter by people that are so out of touch with reality. I have have and will continue to pay for the commercial free satelite radio that I now enjoy. Why is anyone trying to tax or otherwise impede the business of satelite radio? Let those in broadcast radio compete in the free market like satelite has and continues to do.